

Visualfiles and SolCase

Services from Saturn27 - The Partner of Choice

Saturn27 is a strategic legal technology integration specialist delivering services to law firms, corporate legal departments and professional services firms in the UK, US and Canada. Saturn27's consultants have a wealth of experience managing and implementing Visualfiles and SolCase to ensure you achieve a maximum return on your investment.

Case and Matter Management

Visualfiles and SolCase are market leading toolkits for bespoke and volume case management solutions, but they are unique in their design and development environment. Finding the right software architect with the business intelligence and technical ability to understand these environments can prove challenging and all too often requires significant time and financial investment.

With Saturn27 you can rest assured you are investing in professionals who have the credentials and experience to understand your requirements and start delivering from day one. Our experience has been gained first hand working for the originators of these solutions and also working for and around law firms and professional services who have adopted the technologies.

At Saturn27 we are here to help no matter the size and scope of your requirements.

Our core areas of expertise are:

- Application Development
- Data Importing
- Data Extracting
- Publishing Data Online
- Automatic Workflow/Robots
- Integration with PMS and CRM Systems
